Student-Athlete Acknowledgement and Assumption of Risk

I, _____, the parent/guardian of _____, and my student-athlete (hereafter referred to as “we”) understand that participation in East St. Louis Senior High School interscholastic sports requires a personal acceptance of risk of injury. Student-athletes generally expect that those who are responsible for the conduct of sport (e.g., coaches) take reasonable precautions to minimize such risk, and that their peers participating in sport will not intentionally inflict wrongful injury upon them.

We understand that participation in interscholastic athletics at East St. Louis Senior High School may result in injury, illness, permanent physical or mental impairment, or even death. These injuries may be minor in nature or may be career, or life, threatening. We understand that East St. Louis Senior High School cannot be held responsible for any injuries or conditions that may be caused by the action of other student-athletes or teams (e.g., opponents). We also understand that injuries may be caused by my or my child’s failure to adhere to safety techniques which are made known to my child by the coaching, athletic training, and strength and conditioning staffs and/or another source, including school medical staff.

We understand there are certain inherent risks involved in participating in interscholastic athletics. We acknowledge the fact that these risks exist and we are willing to assume responsibility for any and all such risks while participating in interscholastic athletic events at or sponsored by East St. Louis Senior High School. We also agree to the following:

- A. We voluntarily assume all risk associated with my child’s participation in interscholastic athletics.
- B. We accept that East St. Louis Senior High School and its personnel are not to be held responsible for any pre-existing medical conditions that my child may have.
- C. We understand that having passed the pre-participation physical does not necessarily mean that my child is physically qualified to participate in interscholastic athletics at East St. Louis Senior High School but only that the evaluator did not find a medical reason to disqualify me at the time of examination.
- D. We understand that my child must refrain from practice while injured or ill, whether or not my child is receiving medical care. When under medical care, my child may not return to participation until they have been granted permission, based on independent exercise of professional judgement by their attending physician(s) or their designate after review of my child’s condition and fitness for the rigors of my child’s sport(s).
- E. We understand and agree that if my child experiences any injury, illness, or change in health status, it is my child’s responsibility to notify and inform the head coach and certified athletic trainer in charge of my sport and to adhere to established injury management guidelines, which includes rehabilitation and reassessment before I am released to return to full participation.

I further understand and consent to the athletic trainer's providing advice to my student-athlete concerning nutrition, hydration, and conditioning. The athletic trainer may also provide to my student-athlete hot or cold packs, wound care, taping and/or bracing, massage, whirlpool treatment, soft tissue therapies, and therapeutic exercises to which I also authorize and consent to be performed on my student-athlete during their participation in school-sponsored athletics.

Additionally, I understand that in the case of injury or illness requiring treatment by emergency medical personnel and transportation to a healthcare facility, a reasonable attempt will be made to contact me. ### Concussion Information Sheet

A concussion is a brain injury and all brain injuries are serious. They are caused by a bump, blow, or jolt to the head, or by a blow to another part of the body with the force transmitted to the head. They can range from mild to severe and can disrupt the way the brain normally works. Even though most concussions are mild, all concussions are potentially serious and may result in complications including prolonged brain damage and death if not recognized and managed properly. In other words, even a “ding” or a bump on the head can be serious. You can’t see a concussion and most sports concussions occur without loss of consciousness. Signs and symptoms of concussion may show up right after the injury or can take hours or days to fully appear. If your child reports any symptoms of concussion, or if you notice the symptoms or signs of concussion yourself, seek medical attention right away.

Symptoms may include one or more of the following:

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Headaches</li> <li>“Pressure in head”</li> <li>Nausea or vomiting</li> <li>Neck pain</li> <li>Balance problems or dizziness</li> <li>Blurred, double, or fuzzy vision</li> <li>Sensitivity to light or noise</li> <li>Feeling sluggish or slowed down</li> <li>Feeling foggy or groggy</li> <li>Drowsiness</li> <li>Change in sleep patterns</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Amnesia</li> <li>“Don’t feel right”</li> <li>Fatigue or low energy</li> <li>Sadness</li> <li>Nervousness or anxiety</li> <li>Irritability</li> <li>More emotional</li> <li>Confusion</li> <li>Concentration or memory problems (forgetting game plays)</li> <li>Repeating the same question/comment</li> </ul>

Signs observed by teammates, parents and coaches include:

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Appears dazed</li> <li>Vacant facial expression <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Confused about assignment</li> <li>Forgets plays</li> </ul> </li> <li>Is unsure of game, score, or opponent <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Moves clumsily or displays incoordination</li> <li>Answers questions slowly</li> </ul> </li> <li>Slurred speech</li> <li>Shows behavior or personality changes <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Can’t recall events prior to hit</li> <li>Can’t recall events after hit</li> <li>Seizures or convulsions</li> <li>Any change in typical behavior or personality</li> <li>Loses consciousness</li> </ul> </li> </ul>

What can happen if my child keeps on playing with a concussion or returns too soon?

Athletes with the signs and symptoms of concussion should be removed from play immediately. Continuing to play with the signs and symptoms of a concussion leaves the young athlete especially vulnerable to greater injury. There is an increased risk of significant damage from a concussion for a period of time after that concussion occurs, particularly if the athlete suffers another concussion before completely recovering from the first one. This can lead to prolonged recovery, or even to severe brain swelling (second impact syndrome) with devastating and even fatal consequences. It is well known that adolescent or teenage athletes will often fail to report symptoms of injuries. Concussions are no different. As a result, education of administrators, coaches, parents and students is the key to student-athlete's safety.

If you think your child has suffered a concussion

Any athlete even suspected of suffering a concussion should be removed from the game or practice immediately. No athlete may return to activity after an apparent head injury or concussion, regardless of how mild it seems or how quickly symptoms clear, without medical clearance. Close observation of the athlete should continue for several hours. The Youth Sports Concussion Safety Act requires athletes to complete the Return to Play (RTP) protocols for their school prior to returning to play or practice following a concussion or after being removed from an interscholastic contest due to a possible head injury or concussion and not cleared to return to that same contest.

You should also inform your child's coach if you think that your child may have a concussion. Remember it's better to miss one game than miss the whole season. And when in doubt, the athlete sits out.

For current and up-to-date information on concussions you can go to:
<http://www.cdc.gov/ConcussionInYouthSports/>

IHSA Performance-Enhancing Substance Policy

In 2008, the IHSA Board of Directors established the association's Performance-Enhancing Substance (PES) Policy. A full copy of the policy and other related resources can be accessed on the IHSA Sports Medicine website. Additionally, links to the PES Policy and the association's Banned Drug classes are listed below. School administrators are able to access the necessary resources used for policy implementation in the IHSA Schools Center.

As a prerequisite to participation in IHSA athletic activities, we have reviewed the policy agree that I/our student will not use performance-enhancing substances as defined by the policy. We understand that failure to follow the policy could result in penalties being assigned to me/our student either by the my/our student's school or the IHSA.
